

FEMA Hosts Readiness Event for Older Adults

Release Date: August 30, 2023

OAKLAND, Calif. – The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and the Center for Elders' Independence (CEI) will host a Golden Ready Preparedness Forum for Older Adults on Tuesday, September 12, 2023, from 12:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. at The California Endowment, 2000 Franklin St., Oakland, CA 94612.

The event will provide preparedness education and resources for older adults and caregivers in Oakland and beyond through an in person and online viewing experience.

“CEI is proud to partner with FEMA for this pre-eminent disaster preparedness event for older adults. As we are passionately dedicated to supporting the health, dignity, and quality of life for older adults, we recognize the critical role that a sense of physical safety plays in supporting overall wellbeing,” said Maria E. Zamora, CEI President and CEO.

The event will feature a variety of workshops and information on topics such as:

- natural disaster preparedness,
- active shooter preparedness,
- cybersecurity awareness,
- and health preparedness in the event of a disaster

“We are excited to host this event to provide older adults with the information and resources they need to prepare for emergencies,” said Tammy Littrell, FEMA Region 9 Deputy Administrator. “We know that older adults are often disproportionately affected by disasters, so it is important to make sure they have the tools they need to stay safe.”

There will also be opportunities to connect with community resources and organizations, including City of Oakland, Centers for Medicaid & Medicare

Services, Sutter Health, LifeLong Medical, Operation Dignity, Center for Independent Living - Berkeley, LeadingAge California and more.

The event is free and open to the public. RSVP is required. To RSVP, please visit fema.gov/event/goldenready.
