Reporting a Civil Rights Violation

If you believe you or someone you know has been discriminated against, you may file a civil rights complaint. Discriminatory incidents must be reported to the FEMA Office of Civil Rights within 180 days of the alleged act.

How to File a Complaint:

- Call the FEMA Office of Civil Rights at 1-833-285-7448
 - Press 1 for English
 - Press 2 for Spanish
- Email: FEMA-OCR-ECRD@fema.dhs.gov
- Mail: FEMA Office of Civil Rights
500 C Street, SW
4th Floor - 4SW-0915
Washington, D.C.
20472-3535

Next Steps:

When an informal complaint is received from a disaster survivor or member of the public, FEMA OCR will work with the FEMA program office, directorate, or recipient to resolve the informal complaint. If resolution is not achieved, the complainant is provided with notice of the right to file a formal complaint. In most cases, if it is determined that FEMA OCR has jurisdiction over the formal complaint, then a full investigation will be completed.
